Objectives of the Course:

This course introduces students to the theory and practice of the teaching of English as a Foreign Language (TEFL). The course will explore theoretical concerns which influence TEFL, materials and techniques for teaching, and principles of classroom management and planning. Specifically, the teaching and learning elements of this course will provide students with opportunities to develop an understanding of English as a world language; new technologies in the classroom; learner autonomy; and, context-sensitive teaching. In addition the course will enable students to plan and develop lessons reflecting current methodological practice and articulate the principles on which they are based to achieve 'best practice' in TEFL.

Learning Outcomes:

After completion of the course students are expected to:

1. identify reasons for successful language learning;
2. identify main theories and trends in TEFL;
3. identify approaches used in language teaching;
4. evaluate activities for teaching language skills;
5. design materials for teaching specific items or areas of language;
