

Course Code LALI-496	Course Title Research Project II	ECST Credits 6
Department Languages and Literature	Semester Spring	Prerequisites LALI 495
Type of Course Required	Field English Literature and Linguistics	Language of Instruction English
Level of Course 1 st Cycle	Year of Study 4 th	Lecturer(s) Dr Paul Stewart
Mode of Delivery face-to-face	Work Placement N/A	Co-requisites None

Objectives of the Course:

The aim of the course is the completion of research paper decided upon and planned in LALI 495 (Research Project I). In consultation with the assigned supervisor, the students will write-up their thesis using the academic referencing system appropriate to the field. Drafts and revisions will be made before the final submission of the thesis of approximately 8,000 words.

Learning Outcomes:

After completion of the course students are expected to be able to:

1. complete an extended piece of scholarly research;
2. utilise an appropriate referencing system;
3. proof-read and revise an extended piece of scholarly research;
4. apply a proper academic tone across an extended piece of scholarly research;
5. utilise fully all available and appropriate research methods and tools.

Course Contents:

1. Identifying research question
2. Forming an hypothesis
3. Conducting primary and secondary research
4. Evaluation of sources

5. Writing up a research project
6. Integrating primary and secondary research into one's own work.
7. Note-taking and bibliographical referencing

Learning Activities and Teaching Methods:

One-to-one supervision

Assessment Methods:

Research project

Required Textbooks/Reading: *Not Applicable

Authors	Title	Publisher	Year	ISBN

