Objectives of the Course

This is the first in a four-semester sequence of courses in which the student receives individualized and group instruction on his/her primary performance medium. It is a highly personalized course. The general objective is for the student to develop his/her technical and expressive skills, as well as familiarity with appropriate stylistic habits, to be qualified to pass on to Advance Primary Study, during which the student continues to develop these skills with the aim toward offering one or two public solo recitals (depending on the student's degree concentration).

Learning Outcomes

After completion of the course students are expected to be able to:

1. Illustrate considerable performing skills on their major instrument
2. Formulate and adhere to a constructive practice routine
3. Perform publicly and appraise the experience of performance
4. Evaluate themselves with regards to playing ability in relation to the expected performing standards
5. Illustrate a sense of stage presence and communication with an audience.
