

Mr. Yiannis Menelaou

Yiannis Menelaou is an investments and digital finance expert with a vision to democratize financial markets through autonomous operations. Ioannis is currently an Executive of Lykke Group, a Swiss blockchain-fintech company. Lykke operates a crypto-exchange, wallet and offers blockchain solutions for big institutions, like banks. Ioannis is the General Manager of the European operations via Lykke Cyprus. Additionally, Ioannis is an industry fellow at the MSc in Blockchain and Digital Currency of the University of Nicosia, the first and top tier degree on blockchain education. Ioannis is also invited as a keynote speaker and lecturer to professional bodies and global prestigious events (France, Russia, Japan, Serbia, Greece, Slovakia, Cyprus...). Moreover, he acts as a strategy advisor for business and compliance operations to fintech projects, some of which have successfully raised millions in capital. Additionally, he holds other executive and managerial positions in global institutions. Ioannis is a holder of advanced academic qualifications from the MIT, Yale and Leeds universities. He has studied mathematics and financial engineering. Ioannis is certified as a regulated professional in the financial services industry. Ioannis has an active role in the start-up and entrepreneurial ecosystem of Cyprus.