

Mr. Mark Toohey

Mark Toohey is the co-founder and CEO of TBSx3 - a blockchain-based logistics and supply chain solutions company. He serves as an industry expert and guest lecturer for the MSc in Blockchain and Digital Currency (University of Nicosia). His knowledge of this cutting-edge technology is built upon a solid commercial foundation and his extensive background as a lawyer in some of Australia's leading law firms. Mark was also the General Counsel for a telecommunications company and a major television company which were both publicly listed. Since founding his own law firm, Adroit Lawyers, Mark has helped dozens of companies turn their ideas into businesses. Many were technology companies focused on disrupting and transforming industry.