

Virtual Summer School ‘Sharing Good Practice in Multilingual and Intercultural Virtual Learning Spaces, 28 June - 9 July 2021

The Summer School is driven by the key themes of interculturality and multilingualism in the workplace with a focus on a variety of educational settings. The Summer School draws on research-informed teaching linked to practical, ‘real-life’ issues. It will provide a problem-solving based critical exploration of the experiences of different groups with focus on vulnerable, displaced and minority groups. Participants will be guided to complete video group-projects, and they will receive a certificate of attendance that includes a ‘skills passport’ that they will be able to use for employment-related purposes.

The event is delivered by the Newcastle University, UK and the University of Nicosia, Cyprus. It is funded by the Association of Commonwealth Universities (ACU).

Participants:

The summer school is open to all students attending Education and Intercultural Communication postgraduate taught and research programmes at both institutions. Places are limited, make sure that you register here: <https://www.unic.ac.cy/acu-summer-school-2021/>
