

BLENDING INTENSIVE PROGRAMME

NAVIGATING CULTURAL DIFFERENCES: FROM CULTURAL AWARENESS TO EFFECTIVE INTERNATIONAL COLLABORATION

SPEND A WEEK ON THE BEAUTIFUL ISLAND OF CYPRUS, SEE ITS ATTRACTIONS AND MEET NEW PEOPLE

VIRTUAL COMPONENT
29 June 2026 – 10 July 2026

ON-CAMPUS COMPONENT
13 – 17 July 2026
Nicosia, Cyprus

HOW TO APPLY
Contact your Erasmus/International Office at your home university to express your interest

APPLICATION DEADLINES
Student Nominations: 22 May 2026
Student Applications: 1 June 2026
Acceptance Notifications: 5 June 2026

Coordinator:

Partner Institutions:

Funded by:

PROGRAMME OVERVIEW

This intensive programme will offer an introduction to intercultural management and provide you with the necessary skills to communicate effectively in multi-cultural environments.

PROGRAMME STRUCTURE

- Module 1 – Intercultural Communication
- Module 2 – Intercultural Value Differences and Understanding
- Module 3 – Intercultural Competences for Effective Collaboration
- Module 4 – Group Work on a Case Study

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

Undergraduate students in Business | Any other discipline

COST AND SCHOLARSHIPS:

- The activity is funded by the Erasmus+ programme, and you may be able to receive an Erasmus grant.
- The grant should be used to cover your travel and expenses while in Nicosia.
- Please check with your university for Erasmus+ funding opportunities.

WHY JOIN?

- Develop an understanding of how cultural values vary across societies.
- Reflect on your own cultural identity.
- Learn how to communicate effectively within multi-cultural environments.
- Learn how to navigate cultural diversity with confidence and sensitivity.
- Avoid communication failure.
- Develop your interpersonal skills and your intercultural competences.

ERASMUS Code:

2025-1-CY01-KA131-HED-000335190-4

Qualifications:

Earn 3 ECTS credits

Language:

English